- 1.3. You should read this notice, so that you know what we are doing with your personal data. Please also read any other privacy notices that we give you, that might apply to our use of your personal data in specific circumstances in the future.
- 1.4. This notice does not form part of your contract to provide services or any contract of employment that you may have with another company or business.

2. EPUKI's Data Protection Responsibilities

- 2.1. "Personal data" is any information that relates to an identifiable natural person. Your name, address, contact details are all examples of your personal data, if they identify you.
- 2.2. The term "process" means any activity relating to personal data, including, by way of example, collection, storage, use, consultation and transmission.
- 2.3. EPUKI is a "controller" of your personal data. This is a legal term it means that we make decisions about how and why we process your personal data and, because of this, we are responsible for making sure it is used in accordance with data protection laws.
- 2.4. You also have responsibilities whenever you process personal data in connection with the performance of your role at EPUKI; these are outlined in the EP-UKI-HR-1-001 EPUKI Data Protection Policy.

3. What types of personal data do we collect and where do we get it from?

- 3.1 We collect many different types of personal data about you for lots of reasons. We cannot administer our employment or other relationship with you without your personal data. Where we don't need your personal data, we will make this clear.
- 3.2. Further details of the personal data we collect, where we get it from and what we do with it are set out in Schedule 1.
- 3.3. You or your employer provide us with personal data directly when you complete our information forms or correspond with us in the course of performing your job. We also create some personal data ourselves and obtain some personal data from other sources. We obtain it from other people and organisations, including some public sources, such as publically available directories and online resources, your use of EPUKI provided assets, systems and platforms, your line manager and co-workers and your third party providers. You can read

EP-UKI-HR-1-002 Issue 01 May 2018 Page 5 of 26

- more about the sources of personal data in the more detailed information set out in as explained in Schedule 1.
- 3.4. If any of the personal information you have given to us changes, such as your contact details, please change it via the self service option on Cascade or inform us without delay by contacting the Human Resources Team at gdpr@epuki.co.uk.

4. What do we do with your personal data, and why?

- 4.1. We process your personal data for particular purposes in connection with your employment or engagement with us, and the management and administration of our business.
- 4.2. We are required by law to always have a permitted reason or justification (called a "lawful basis") for processing your personal data. There are six such permitted lawful basies for processing personal data. The table at Schedule 2 sets out the different purposes for which we process your personal data and the relevant lawful basis on which we rely for that processing.
- 4.3. Please note that where we have indicated in the table at Schedule 2 that our processing of your personal data is either:
 - 4.3.1. necessary for us to comply with a legal obligation; or
 - 4.3.2. necessary for us to take steps, at your request, to potentially enter into an employment contract with you, or to perform it and you choose not to provide the relevant personal data to us, we may not be able to enter into or continue our contract of employment or engagement with you.
- 4.4. We may also convert your personal data into statistical or aggregated form to better protect your privacy, or so that you are not identified or identifiable from it. Anonymised data cannot be linked back to you. We may use it to conduct research and analysis, including to produce statistical research and reports. For example, to help us understand how many of our total workforce number are on secondments at any given time.

5. Special category personal data (including criminal data)

5.1. We are required by law to treat certain categories of personal data with even more care than usual. These are called sensitive or special categories of personal data and different lawful bases apply to them. Your withdrawal of your consent won't impact any of our processing up to that point.
- 10.3. Where our processing of your personal data is necessary for our legitimate interests, you can object to this processing at any time. If you do this, we will need to show either a compelling reason why our processing should continue, which overrides your interests, rights and freedoms or that the processing is necessary for us to establish, exercise or defend a legal claim.
- 10.4. If you wish to exercise any of your rights please contact the Human Resources Team in the first instance.
- 10.5. You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office, which is the UK data protection regulator. More information can be found on the Information Commissioner's Office website at https://ico.org.uk/.

Your rights in relation to personal data

Your right	What does it mean?	Limitations and conditions of your right
Right to data portability	Subject to certain conditions, you are entitled to receive the personal data which you have provided to us and which is processed by us by automated means, in a structured, commonly-used machine readable format.	If you exercise this right, you should specify the type of information you would like to receive (and where we should send it) where possible to ensure that our disclosure is meeting your expectations. This right only applies if the processing is based on your consent or on our contract with you and when the processing is carried out by automated means (ie not for paper records). It covers only the personal data that has been provided to us by you.
Rights in relation to inaccurate personal or incomplete data	You may challenge the accuracy or completeness of your personal data and have it corrected or completed, as applicable. You have a responsibility to help us to keep your personal information accurate and up to date. We encourage you to notify us of any changes regarding your personal data as soon as they occur, including changes to your contact details, telephone number, immigration status.	Please always check first whether there are any available self-help tools to correct the personal data we process about you. This right only applies to your own personal data. When exercising this right, please be as specific as possible.
Right to object to or restrict our data processing	Subject to certain conditions, you have the right to object to or ask us to restrict the processing of your personal data.	As stated above, this right applies where our processing of your personal data is necessary for our legitimate interests. You can also object to our processing of your personal data for direct marketing purposes.
Right to erasure	Subject to certain conditions, you are entitled to have your personal data erased (also known as the "right to be forgotten"), eg where your personal data is no longer needed for the purposes it was collected for, or where the relevant processing is unlawful.	We may not be in a position to erase your personal data, if for example, we need it to (i) comply with a legal obligation, or (ii) exercise or defend legal claims.

WHEN PRINTED - THIS DOCUMENT IS "UNCONTROLLED"

Right of access	Subject to certain conditions, you are entitled to have access to your personal data (this is more commonly known as submitting a "data subject access request").	If possible, you should specify the type of information you would like to see to ensure that our disclosure is meeting your expectations. We must be able to verify your identity. Your request may not impact the rights and freedoms of other people, eg privacy and confidentiality rights of other staff.
Right to withdrawal of consent	As stated above, where our processing of your personal data is based on your consent you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time.	If you withdraw your consent, this will only take effect for future processing.
